

Old Laws of the Cairn (Pre-Ascension)

If a person murders another that person shall be Banished.

If a person assaults another they will receive the same treatment they inflicted on the person charging them and spend one (1) month in jail.

If a person is a thief they will be put to death one (1) time. All persons shall adhere to curfew.

Curfew is 9:00 PM (21:00). Persons outside after Curfew must provide their work token.

If they do not, they will be jailed for five (5) days. ~With the exception of Night Market Day, which is Saturday (the 6th day of the week)

If a person slanders another they shall be marked on their face with a hot iron in the shape of the letter S.

If a person commits fraud they will have to pay a fine of ten (10) times the value of the item and will also have to return payment to victim.

If it is proven that a worker does not complete their job, they will be jailed for a length of time appointed by a judge.

If property if not maintained, the owner will be moved to community housing. The owner will also pay for repairs and pay a fine of two (2) times the amount for repairs.

If a person bears false witness in a trial they will be jailed for a length of time appointed by a judge. If the trial reaches a capital punishment, that person will be Banished.

If personal housing, business, or community areas are not kept sanitary the owner will pay for cleaning as well as a two (2) times the fee fine.

If a child is neglected, law enforcement will remove child from the home. A trial will be held and a judge will determine the punishment up to Banishment.

Each couple will only be allowed to have two (2) children, by adoption or coupling.

~Any persons found with more than two (2) children will be given the following punishment, ~One (1) parent will be Banished.

~If a couple has more than one (1) child over the limit all children will be removed and both parents will be Banished.

~Any children over the maximum of two (2) will be placed for adoption or will be entered into community housing until they come of age.

If a person dismisses the orders of a law enforcement officer, they will be fined 10 gold and jailed for 5 days.

All Persons have the option of a trial by peers instead of receiving the base punishment.

However, the punishments delivered from the trial are not guaranteed to be less than default punishment. Punishments delivered by a trial are chosen by the Judge presiding over the trial based off the jury's vote.